Our mission is to Strengthen African Machine Learning and AI by building communities, creating leadership, and recognising excellence in research and applications by African innovators.

Having been to Southern and East Africa, the 4th Indaba travels to North Africa.

Key Facts:
- No registration fees for students and postdocs, thanks to donors.
- 200 student travel awards made in 2018 and 2019.
- Donors included world’s leading technology firms.
- Donors include continental banks, startups, and government.

Why Tunisia?
Tunisia today represents one of the centres of high technical talent in Africa (and MENA region). Like South Africa and Kenya before, Tunis makes an ideal location for this next Indaba. Tunisia has a young population, progressive social relations, and with support from the Tunisian government through programmes like the Startup Act, is home to a highly entrepreneurial community of technologists and developers.

Support Global Diversity in AI
Your support directly supports greater inclusion in the global landscape of AI, directly enabling wider participation and contribution to advanced technology design. Your partnership enables local expertise and development in countries across Africa.

What you can expect?
Like previous years, you can expect to inspire, meet, engage, and interview candidates from across the African continent. Attendees come from across the spectrum, from undergraduates, Masters and PhD students, to those already in industry and startups.

You can expect our teams to work with you to find ways to help you engage with our communities.

The Indaba Foundation
Your support funds the Indaba’s mission to Strengthen African Machine Learning and AI, by enabling the Foundation to build communities, create leadership and recognise excellence. The Indaba is a non-profit organisation registered in the UK as a company limited by guarantee.

Partnership and Engagement

Our preferred approach is to have your organisation and teams agree to the Indaba’s Charter and Statement of Mutual Commitments, which is a low overhead, but official and legal documentation for records, auditing and tracking. We will share this with you as soon as we have your engagement.

If your organisation prefers to have more detailed sponsorship contracts in place, please put us in contact with your teams as soon as you can, and we will work to get these agreed as soon as possible.

Vendor Onboarding

Please let us know what timelines and details are needed to have our accounts set up within your internal finance and vendor systems.
